The organization is requesting more money due to the increase in the number of anticipated attendance, including the general body and the panelists. We just submitted an invoice from Gerlanda's, and the total cost came out to be 216.50 for food and drinks that will cover 60 people. And we only got 124.62 for the mixer. We have been holding the mixer for a little over a decade now, and each year, students are enlightened by minorities in different fields on their path to becoming students in their respective fields.
