RUSA Allocations Budget Appeals Form Spring 2022

General Information

This form is for student organizations that need funding for an already existing or new program/project/trip/publication/organizational maintenance which they are hosting on or off-campus.

Regardless of whether you have already been funded for an event, please fill out the form as if you have not received funding. In other words, list all costs for the program, not just 'additional' expenses.

You may appeal for a maximum of 2 programs/projects/trips/ publication/organizational maintenance per appeals meeting. *We are currently only funding a total of 2 of these per student organization, in addition to organizational maintenance. If you have 2 already funded and would like to replace an event, please fill out this form for the program that you do NOT have funding for, and send an email to rusa.allocations@gmail.com stating which program you would like to replace.

Please be sure to read the Allocations guidelines for fundable and non-fundable items: <https://rusa.rutgers.edu/allocations/funding>. Complete the form to the best of your ability with detailed descriptions.

Please note that if invited, you must attend the meeting which takes place on Monday night. You will be notified with the exact date, time, and location of the meeting via email.

You are required to bring copies of your budget to the appeals meeting for your own reference. Treasurer(s) and President(s) of the organizations that are submitting this appeal are encouraged to attend the meeting.

If you have any questions or concerns, please email rusa.allocations@gmail.com (<mailto:rusa.allocations@gmail.com>).

Mission of your Organization (from your group's constitution)

The purpose of this organization is to refine student public speaking skills by helping them develop critical thinking, writing, researching and speaking skills through effective communication, argumentation, persuasion, debate and leadership. Members will be able to engage in the following competitive intercollegiate speech and debate events:

1. Speech events are governed by the rules created by the American Forensics Association, National Individual Events Tournament, National Forensics Association and or the International Forensics Association. Each tournament will have its rules determined by one of these speech organizations.
 - a. They consist of: Public Speaking (Informative, Persuasive, After Dinner and Communication Analysis), Interpretation of Literature (Prose, Poetry, Program Oral Interpretation, Drama, and Dramatic Duo), and Limited Preparation (Impromptu and Extemporaneous)
2. Debate events are governed by the rules created by National Parliamentary Debate Association, National Parliamentary Tournament of Excellence, and/or the National Forensics Association. Each debate tournament will have its rules determined by one of these speech organizations. They consist of:
 - a. Lincoln-Douglas debate: a form of one-on-one debate governed specifically by the National Forensics Association.
 - b. Parliamentary debate: a form of two-on-two debate governed specifically by the National Parliamentary Debate Association, and or National Parliamentary Tournament of Excellence

Student Organizations with outstanding advances or a remaining advance balance ARE NOT permitted to appeal for additional allocation until the amount of the advance(s) are satisfied in full.

*Remember to list "RUSA Allocations Board, paid for by student fees" on all advertisement if the Allocations Boards funds over 20% of the entire event/program at the time of the submitted budget.

No organization may charge more than $10.00 per Rutgers Student for admissions if at least 75% of the funding of the submitted budget comes from the Allocations Board.
