Mission of your Organization (from your group's constitution)

The purpose of R.A.A.G. is to introduce and create a medium for the students, faculty, and community of Rutgers University to learn and expose themselves to the art of South Asian music performed in an a'cappella fashion (without instruments). This organization is being developed to promote unity among the various cultures present on the university's campuses along with giving students an opportunity to develop their talents in music from the region of South Asia.
