Other

We want to provide our members with Riot Squad merchandise as a reward for attending a certain number of our events. We want to make a points system where attendance is tracked and rewarded with club merchandise. However, with our current available budget of just over $1000, implementing this would essentially use up the vast majority of our budget, leaving little to no room to hold various events for our members. Obtaining another $1000 for our budget would allow us to implement this points system and also plan fun events for our members. Providing our members with merch would bolster our on-campus presence, which would help with recruiting new members. Additionally, providing merch to our members in a point system format would incentivize our current members to attend more of our events to receive merch rewards

Total Cost of the Program:
