Mission of your Organization (from your group's constitution)

As a chapter of National Alzheimer's Buddies, Rutgers Alzheimer's Buddies aims to further National Alzheimer's Buddies' mission of alleviating the social and emotional challenges that stem from Alzheimer's by building strong relationships between college students and Alzheimer's patients. Normally, volunteers will visit their buddies at Foxtrail Memory Care to participate in fun activities or simply talk about their week, allowing them to learn about the person beneath the disease and make the most of the present. The volunteers also write letters to the family of their buddy, highlighting the positive aspects of the week, suggesting activities families can do together, and helping reconnect family members with their loved ones.
