Mission of your Organization (from your group's constitution)

The goals of Orthodox Christian Campus Ministries (OCCM) are to encourage students to excel both in their academic and personal lives as well as educate Rutgers students about Orthodoxy in modern society. OCCM can achieve these goals of encouragement and education through self-worth and informational events, respectively. We also emphasize community service as a meaningful way to bring Rutgers students together and to support the well-being of the less fortunate in New Brunswick. OCCM is an organization aimed at providing students, regardless of religious views or cultural background, with hope, acceptance, forums that allow people to discuss ideas and learn from one another, and opportunities to contribute to the community. In short, our mission is to foster a welcoming community organization that spreads positivity, service, and education to others, all while giving students and faculty a deeper insight into Orthodox Christianity. Thankfully, our mission has been successful over the years through the support of Rutgers as it enables us to continue encouraging and educating others.

Give Back

Program Description/Goal:

Give Back is our way of uniting the Rutgers Community through a day of Thanksgiving. Rutgers is a very large school with genuinely beneficial social interaction very scarce to be found. We want to return the mentality of thanksgiving to the Rutgers campus. Our organization, and more importantly Christianity, is centered on fellowship with one another and “loving your neighbor”. We strongly believe that the only way for us to “survive” the college experience is to continue to encourage one another. This event, as it has every year, will uplift fallen spirits and keep us focused on the ideas of thanksgiving and encouragement. Give Thanks offers a very relaxing environment to allow anyone who might be stressed or overburdened with the responsibility to unwind at our event. Through this relaxed atmosphere, we hope to showcase the virtue of thanksgiving to other Rutgers students. Through the aid of a food can drive, we also hope to help many shelters across New Brunswick. We always get a very large number of people at this event and by getting a single can from every person we would be able to donate a massive amount of food to homeless shelters that are in huge need. This will also bolster Rutgers' public image in the community of New Brunswick. This service to our community will be monumental and also share the gift of giving with each person at the dinner. With your help, we will be able to unite our Rutgers family and continue to give back to the community

Jesus Awareness Day

Program Description/Goal:

"Jesus Awareness Day" is an informational event that is geared towards spreading the awareness of the Orthodox group of Christians in the geographical east. Through the use of posters and different visual props, we hope to educate the Rutgers community on the deeply entrenched traditions that are found within the Copts in Egypt as well as the other Orthodox communities located around the world. There will be a variety of stations that can teach anyone who is unfamiliar with religious ideas about the various features of Oriental Christian Orthodoxy. Of these stations will be topics such as the Local Vernacular, Hymnology, Iconography, as well as the rituals within the Liturgy/Mass. We will also have different props to detail the architecture of the churches, as well as the vestments our clergy. The event will be located in a lounge very accessible to most students as well as offer food, along with its stations to attract students who are merely passing by. It is the primary objective of every Christian to preach and spread their faith. Amongst the Christians of the east are profound traditions that a majority of people in the United States are unaware of. Through the showcasing of these traditions, we hope to spark interest in the community for our mission. This event is right in line with part of our goal which is to educate and unite the Rutgers community. Discovering Orthodoxy will have a lasting impact on the Rutgers Community and imprint the Oriental Orthodox religion on them.
