Dr Umar Takes Over Rutgers

Program Description/Goal:

The Black Men's Collective is devoted to unifying our student body, and the best way we feel to do that is to bring in keynote speakers to come talk about current issues going on in the world, history, and professional development. Over the past year, there has been so much going on in the world in regards to racial issues and economic issues. This is why we plan to bring Dr. Umar Johnson, one of the most notable Black scholars today to discuss these matters. In this event, he will talk about the history of Pan-Africanism, racism, Marcus Garvey, and professional development topics. He will be doing a 90 minute lecture on this in addition to a Q&A and book signing. Dr. Umar Johnson is a Doctor of Clinical Psychology and Certified School Psychologist who is considered an expert on the education and mental health of Afrikan and Afrikan-American children. Dr. Umar, as he is known to friends, is a paternal kinsman to both the Great Abolitionist Frederick Douglass (1818-1895) and the late Bishop Alexander Wayman (1821-1895), 7th Bishop of the AME Church, both from Maryland's Eastern Shore.
