Mission of your Organization (from your group's constitution)

The Bengali Students Association, established in 1997, focuses on uniting the Bengali community here at Rutgers University. The organization illustrates the diverse cultures of Bengali communities worldwide. Through dance, song, discussions, and various public events, the association will expose other cultures to our own rich culture. It is thus our goal to maintain such exposure and strengthen the sense of Bengali identity. With these aims, we strive not only to share our culture with others, but we also help to establish our own identity, educate others, and preserve the Bengali culture, extending within and beyond the University borders.
