Mission of your Organization (from your group's constitution)

HSC is a non-sectarian international forum for the education and promotion of the Hindu cultural and spiritual heritage. Students, faculty members and all other academicians are welcome to join. HSC also provides opportunities for non-academic individuals to work and identify closely with the objectives and programs of HSC. HSC is a national forum to provide activities & projects to achieve the following: a. Education of Hinduism, Hindu cultural & spiritual heritage and history. b. Live a better life according to Hindu Dharma and its spiritual teachings. c. Promotion of Hindu culture & values. d. Take necessary actions for the betterment of our society & the environment. HSC promotes understanding and awareness about Hindu heritage amongst all students at Rutgers, both Hindus and non-Hindus. The mission of HSC is to develop a bond of extended Hindu family relationship and awareness, enlightened with the Universal ideals of the Hindu Dharma. HSC is not purely a religious group. HSC honors each member's own religion and does not promote any type of conversion. The teachings of Hinduism are universally applicable to all ways of life. Thus HSC is a socio-religio-cultural organization.
