Mission of your Organization (from your group's constitution)

☐ Rutgers Horror Society will aim to proliferate the consumption and study of all media wherein the objective is to elicit feelings of fear, dread, revulsion, or any other subversion of the human body's fight or flight response. The organization will serve Rutgers in providing a comfortable space for students to converse & collaborate with their peers with respect to the horror genre and anything that may pertain to it. As an organization of students, part of our goal is to value analysis from an academic perspective above all else as to maintain a scholarly climate at Rutgers University.
