Mission of your Organization (from your group's constitution)

> Fusion: The Rutgers Union of Mixed People aims to unite people who identify with or are interested in the multiracial experience (multiracial, multiethnic, interracial relationships, transracial adoption, etc.). Not only will this organization be open to the Rutgers community, but friends and families of students/faculty are also encouraged to participate. Fusion will serve as a support system and a forum for people to express their thoughts, ideas, and concerns about issues that are relevant to the multiracial community. This organization plans to develop ways to teach the Rutgers community about the mixed experience while breaking down racial barriers in the process. We wish to examine common myths and misconceptions about multiracial identity and interracial relationships, challenge exclusive and essentialist ideas about race, and analyze their origins and work towards dispelling them through group discussions. Although there are other student organizations that promote diversity and acceptance of all cultures, there is no organization that caters specifically to individuals with mixed heritage. Fusion will create a space where mixed-race individuals can fit in and interact with people who share similar experiences. Ultimately, it is our goal to increase awareness about multiracial issues, support individuals in developing their identities, and help the mixed community become more accepted in society.
